

THE LIBERTY PARTY.

Words by E. Wright, jr.

Tune--"Tis Dawn, the Lark is Singing."

The musical score consists of eight staves of music in common time, key signature of one flat (B-flat). The vocal part is in soprano range, and the piano accompaniment is in basso continuo range. The lyrics are integrated with the musical notes, appearing below the staff lines. The music features various note values including eighth and sixteenth notes, with rests and dynamic markings like forte (f) and piano (p).

Will ye despise the a - corn, Just thrust - ing out its Wilt thou despise the cres - cent, That trem - bles, new - ly shoot, Ye gi - ants of the for - est, That born, Thou bright and peer - less plan - et, Whose strike the deep - est root? Will ye des-pise the reign shall reach the morn? Time now his scythe is stream - lets Up - on the moun - tain side; Ye whet - ting, Ye gi - ant oaks, for you; Ye broad and migh - ty riv - ers, On sweep - ing to the tide?

floods, the sea is thirst - ing, To drink you like the dew.